Re: Battle of the Homerooms

Let the battle begin! I have developed an idea to encourage and hopefully increase the students' motivation to perform well in grades K through 8. The program is called Battle of the Homerooms. All homerooms will start with 100 points starting September 3rd. Points will be added or subtracted based upon the following:

High Honor Roll	+100points per student
Class completion of all weekly homework assignments	+100 points per homeroom
Honor Roll	+50points per student
Special awards (Citizenship, Leadership, etc)	+35 points per student
Positive Referral	+40 points
Compliment from a fellow teacher	+20 per homeroom
Saturday Test Prep	+20 points per student
QCA Assessments (80% or above)	+100 points per homeroom
Suspension	-30 points per student
Recess study hall	-20points per student
Receiving a reprimand from administration	-20 points per student or homeroom
Detention/Recess Detention	-20 points per student

The administration can have other incentives at any time to increase points for homerooms. Furthermore, if you give a reprimand or a compliment to a homeroom please let me know. The two homerooms (One homeroom in K-4 and one in 5-8) with the most points will have a “Fun Day” at the end of the month. The “Fun Day” will include an opportunity to receive an ice cream social (K-4) or a Pizza Party (5-8). I will keep a record of all points Good Luck to your homeroom!
